

Examination Courses

These examination courses prepare pupils for the Cambridge English Qualifications A2 KEY, B1 PRELIMINARY, B2 FIRST, C1 ADVANCED and C2 PROFICIENCY.

These are internationally recognised qualifications and are accepted by most institutions and work situations where proof of English skills is required. They are also useful for those seeking additional help with, or exemption from, English lessons at local Swiss secondary schools. All children are eligible to take these examinations regardless of the language spoken by their parents or in their home environment.

These supplementary courses concentrate on examination techniques and are offered only to those students attending Reading & Writing or EFL classes - Level 6 or above. The ESP teaching staff will decide whether or not a student has reached a satisfactory standard to be able to benefit from these additional courses.

Examinations are taken at an approved testing centre, usually in Bern and the ESP will enter the candidates for the examinations as a group ESP entry. Examination fees are not included in the ESP's term fees and will be charged as an addition. Examinations are usually taken in June.

For the A2 KEY course, this must be at least a weekly Level 6 EFL or Reading & Writing course.

For the B1 PRELIMINARY course, this must be at least a weekly Level 7 EFL or Reading & Writing course.

For the B2 FIRST course, this must be at least a weekly Level 8 EFL or Reading & Writing course.

For the C1 ADVANCED course, this must be a S2 or S3 Reading & Writing course.

The A2 KEY course take place every two weeks and lasts for 1 year.

The B1 PRELIMINARY course takes place every 2 weeks until the February Winter Break after which it becomes a weekly course. The course usually lasts for 1 year.

The B2 FIRST course and the C1 ADVANCED course take place every two weeks and last from 2-3 years, depending on the progress made by each student.

The C2 PROFICIENCY course is open to students who have achieved a grade B or above at C1 ADVANCED. It is a weekly course which lasts 2-3 years, depending on the progress made by each student. There is no requirement to attend a Saturday class for Proficiency students.
