

English books for The Gambia

For an aid project in The Gambia, West Africa I am currently looking for English books. A group of students of the University of the Gambia are initiating a project of opening a small private library for kids, teens and grown ups. The students are graduates in social science and would like to provide free reading for their fellow Gambians. Books are very expensive in Gambia and can be hardly afforded by the Gambian people.

This is a project of the heart and together with the project initiator Basiru O. Ceesay, a very close friend of mine, I hope to get as many books as possible to help the students to start their library. The books will be shipped to The Gambia this Summer.

Do you have English books of any kind that you would like to donate for our project?

We are looking forward to each and every book (fiction or non-fiction, for any age group) and to many interesting reading hours for and with our Gambian friends.

If you would like to donate books please contact me: Michelle Jaiteh, 079 303 31 59, michelle.jaiteh@outlook.com.

Or you can simply bring your book donations to the ESP Picnic on July 1.

Thank you !
