

Reading and Writing Classes 2020-2021

These classes focus on the four skills of reading, writing, listening and speaking. This offers a foundation upon which parents can build. The lessons are challenging and enjoyable with an emphasis on activities that develop both oral and written comprehension from beginner to advanced levels.

These classes are primarily for children who already speak English in their home environments.

The proficiency levels described here are intended as guidelines only. The teaching staff will be pleased to answer your questions about your children's capabilities and their progress during the school-year.

By the end of the school-year, your child should be able to:
